

French soldiers in close pursuit of the retreating Germans. In this kind of fighting light machine guns of the type shown in the picture are especially effective.

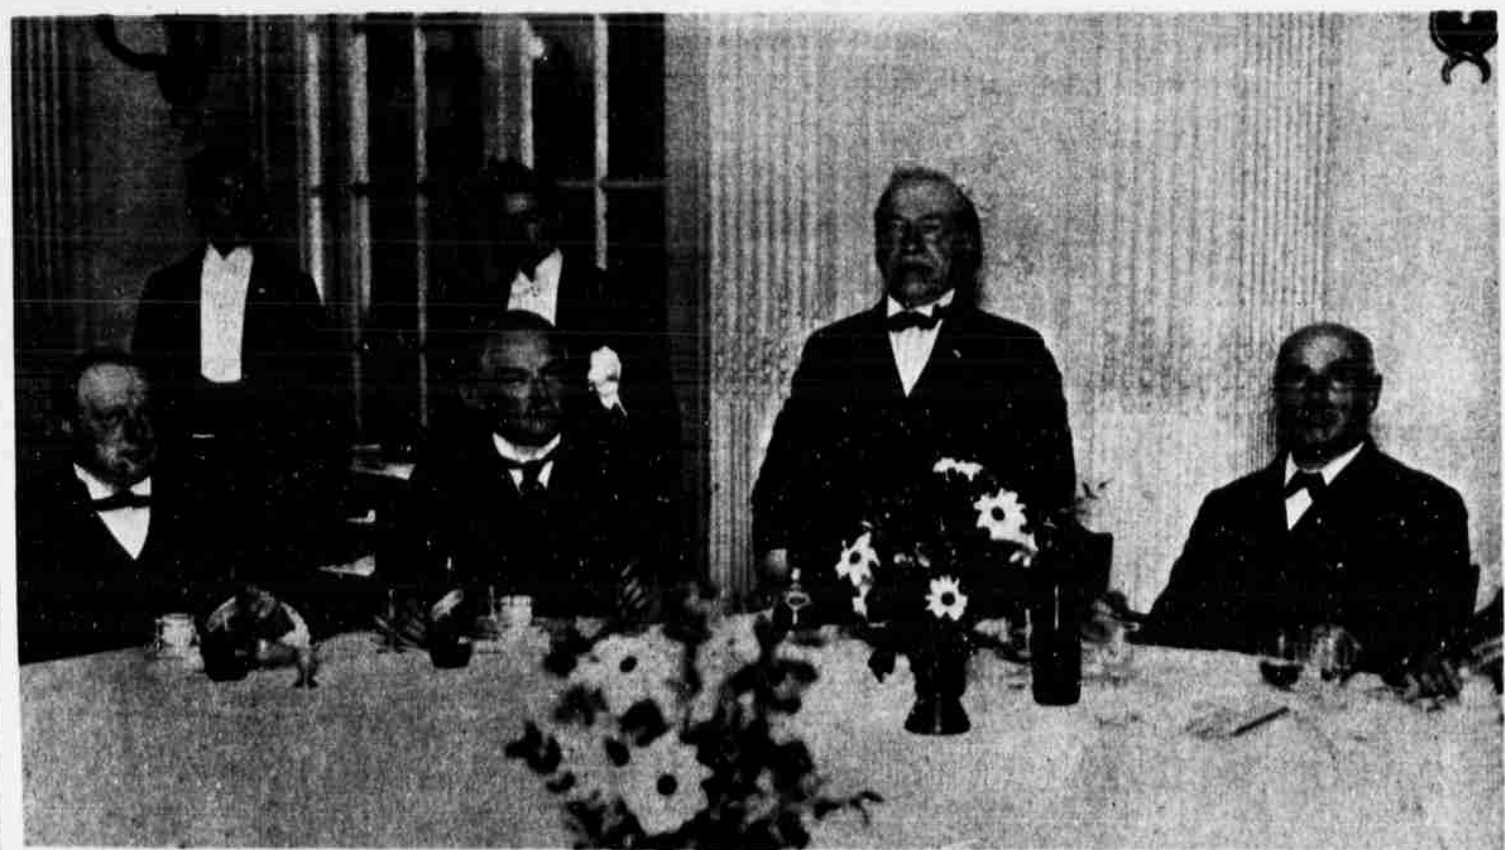

Inauguration at La Guiche of the largest hospital in France. It was erected by subscriptions by Americans and contains 22,000 beds. International Film.

President Wilson on his way to the polls at Princeton, N. J., to vote at the primary election. Mrs. Wilson accompanied him on the trip. A guard of secret service men went with the President to the voting place. Copyright, International Film.

American soldiers and sailors abroad read the good news that British forces have broken through the Hindenburg switch line. International Film.

Samuel Gompers speaking at the luncheon given in his honor by the British Government at the Carlton Hotel in London. To the left of Mr. Gompers are Premier Lloyd George and Winston Churchill and to the right G. N. Barnes, Labor member of the British War Cabinet. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

A section of the British Grand Fleet photographed by moonlight on the occasion of King George's recent visit of inspection. The King is looking through a telescope at the superdreadnought in the foreground. © Underwood & Underwood.